NHS Retirement Fellowship (1st Thu of Month except Jan)

Thursday: 10:00–12:30

Introduction

If you are retired or coming up to retirement from the NHS or social care services, you and your partner will be made very welcome at our branch (East Suffolk).

The Fellowship exists to maintain friendships and to provide opportunities to make new friends through a range of social and leisure activities.

You will be given a warm welcome whether you worked in a hospital or in the community and whatever your job.

We look forward to seeing you!

Membership is open to all ex-members of staff who have at anytime worked for the NHS. It is also open to their spouses/partners. Monthly meetings are held with raffle, speakers, trading stalls, and outings also a welfare team.

1st Thursday every month except January.
